

Five miles southwest of Miami University campus
In farm country, overlooking Indian Creek valley
Private parking, entrance & bath
One guest room only, air-conditioned, antique double bed

From Oxford OH a couple miles west of where Chestnut St turns into Brookville Rd, you'll start down a biiiiig hill. Just before crossing bridge, turn left onto Indian Creek Rd. Next left is Stillwell Beckett and we are the first drive on right. Print and bring this map.

Come up drive and swing left into marked parking area. Enter through iron-fence gate and up brick path to front porch/private entrance. Your room will be ready after 4pm with lights on and keys by the phone. Check out by noon, please.

Your guest room in this 150-yr old farmhouse has line-dried linens, full bath with amenities, phone, wireless high-speed internet included, no TV, handmade goat milk soaps and fine art.

With private bath and entrance
you may arrive at any hour of day or night.

Walk the countryside; watch native birds; relax on the porch swing or drive 5 miles to uptown Oxford OH for your choice of ethnic restaurants. Kona Bistro & Coffee Bar features ArtistryFarm goat cheese on their starters menu...ask for it!
